

Northamptonshire Police and Crime Commission

Freedom of Information Act

Request Response

No. 004424/14

Question

- 1) Has the OPCC ever requested to the Chronicle and Echo newspaper (Web based edition) for comments posted on the Chronicle and Echo on line forum to be removed? (A yes/no answer will suffice)
- 2) Does the OPCC provide the Chronicle and Echo with weekly court results from Northampton magistrates court (A yes/No answer will suffice)
- 3) Kathryn BUCKLE: What is her role within the OPCC? How much is she paid? What qualifications does she hold to receive this pay?
- 4) Is the OPCC providing funding or facilitating funding for any member of their staff (including temporary in whatever form) to receive graduate level or post graduate level qualifications?

Answer

- 1) Yes
- 2) No
- 3) The Elected Local Policing Bodies (Specified Information) Order 2011 specifies that all salaries that exceed £58,200 must be published and an organisational chart showing the structure of the staff, details of which can found at <http://www.northantspcc.org.uk/>

Kathryn Buckle was appointed following a recruitment process that consisted of open advert (Northamptonshire Police website and intranet), application form, online psychometric test, psychological testing and a final panel interview.

4) Yes